

Who is My Neighbor?

Luke 10:25-37 – Adam Bowers

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1) How much of your neighbor grid are you able to fill in? Did you learn anything from writing the names down?
- 2) What is your neighborhood like? What relationships do you currently have there?
- 3) The teacher of religious law in Luke 10 wanted to justify himself so he didn't have to love all of his neighbors. In what ways do we tend to justify ourselves for not loving our neighbors, both in our neighborhoods and elsewhere?
- 4) What are some ways that people around you have shown you love? How did it make you feel?
- 5) What do you think would happen if every follower of Jesus made loving their neighbors a real priority in their lives?
- 6) How are you going to grow in loving your neighbors?
