

A Neighbor, Not a Project

John 13:1-17 – John Richardson

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1) Discuss what is lost when we approach or neighbors as projects rather than as individuals worth knowing and having as friends.
- 2) How have you viewed other people as projects? What have been the outcomes?
- 3) Why is it challenging for us to let go of the expected outcomes of evangelism and discipleship when we are building friendships?
- 4) How does letting go of a "project mentality" lead us to trust God more deeply?
- 5) Read John 13:1-17. Discuss the juxtaposition of verses 3 and 4. What does that say about our response to our calling?
- 6) How are you serving your neighbors?
- 7) Pray and ask God to give us, individually and in our group, opportunities to serve and care for our neighbors, trusting Him with the outcome.
