1. Why do you think Jesus chose to use a story of lying and stealing to make his point about generosity and faithfulness? How does this reflect Jesus' overarching message of redemption?
2. What are some simple ways to use your worldly resources to make friends? How do you plan to put this into action this week?
3. What do you think it means to be trusted with the "true riches of heaven"?
4. What does it look like to be faithful in little things? Large things? Give specific examples from your own life of when you've done this both well and poorly.
5. Why does Jesus say we cannot serve two masters? Why would we love one and hate the other?

"Anything that steals our devotion from God is our master. Anything that we make a higher priority or put on a higher pedestal than God is our master..."

6. Are there any blind spots in your life where you may have let something become a higher priority than your walk with Christ? If so, what will you do to change that? If not, what are some helpful tricks you use to keep God in His rightful place?
