

The Persistent Widow

Luke 18:1-8 | Adam Bowers | 5/23/21

1. Who is the most persistent person you know?
2. Why was the judge said to be corrupt and unjust? How was this different than what Israel expected of judges? (2 Chronicles 19:6-7)
3. How is God's perspective on justice different than the world's?
4. Jesus transitions from talking about justice to faith and Luke says this parable is all about praying and not giving up. How are these things connected?
5. Jesus said that we should learn a lesson from the unjust judge about God. What is the lesson?

"God's justice isn't always immediate but it is always coming."

6. Is this thought encouraging, alarming, or both?
7. What was your biggest takeaway from the message and how will you apply it?
