1. Define humility in your own words. Who is someone in your life who has embodied humility well?
2. What does this parable teach us about making comparisons to other people?
3. If you consider yourself a follower of Jesus, what does being justified by Christ mean for you?
4. How might our church look different if we increased in humility?
5. The tax collector in Jesus' parables teaches us about the importance of posture, self-denial, and repentance. Which of these three areas do you need improvement in the most as you pursue humility?
6. How will you commit to making humility a daily pursuit in your life?
