

One Mediator

Adam Bowers | 9/19/21

1. Why do you think God gave instructions for an elaborate tabernacle with a curtain dividing the place he would dwell from the people? What was this barrier supposed to communicate?
2. What is the significance of the curtain being torn in two from top to bottom when Jesus died on the cross?
3. Because of the sacrifice of Jesus, the way to God no longer involves sacrifices or going through high priests. Are there ways that we still operate as if sacrifices and human mediators are still necessary to be right with God?

Read 1 Peter 2:5-10

4. How does this passage shape your understanding of what it means to be a follower of Jesus?

Read 1 Timothy 2:1-6

5. What does this passage teach you about the responsibility of God's followers based on the sacrifice of Jesus and the desires of God?
