Adam Bowers | 10/3/21

1. Have any Christian women had a significant influence on your life? Who and how?
2. Before Sunday's teaching, what was your perspective on women in leadership in the church?
3. Did you learn anything new from the message that you hadn't heard before?
4. Why can God's principles not only be hard to follow but sometimes hard to understand as well?
5. How can an issue like women in church leadership cause division in the church? How can we remain united even if we have some different perspectives on this issue?
6. Was there a point of application that you specifically took away from the message?
