

How to Be an Example

Adam Bowers | 10/31/21

1. What are some ways people usually respond to unfair treatment that are not biblical reactions?
2. Adam shared four biblical ways to respond to unfair treatment (and other offenses):
 - a. Examine yourself (Matthew 7:1-4)
 - b. Overlook the offense (Proverbs 19:11)
 - c. Have the conversation (Matthew 18:15, Galatians 6:1)
 - d. Raise the issue (Romans 13:4)

Which of these is the most challenging for you to do?

3. Paul told Timothy to respond to unfair treatment by being an example in five areas:
 - a. What you say
 - b. How you live
 - c. How you love
 - d. How you trust
 - e. How you stay pure

Have five people pick a different area and describe what being an example in this area might look like.

4. What is the biggest takeaway from the message for you to apply to your life this week?
