

The True Gift of Christmas

Andrew Miller 12/26/2021

1. What's the strangest (or most memorable) Christmas gift that you've ever received?
2. C.S Lewis wrote "All enjoyment spontaneously overflows into praise... we delight in praising what we enjoy because the praise not merely expresses but completes the enjoyment." What's something that you enjoy praising?
3. In the message we define worship as follows: Worship is joyfully giving God the entirety of our lives because of all He has given us. What stands out to you about this definition?
4. Andrew talked about how God invites us to worship with our head, our heart, and our hands. Which of these areas of worship comes most naturally for you?
5. What's one way that you want to grow in your corporate worship?
6. What's one way that you want to grow in your all of life worship?
