1. What are the ways God redeemed Ruth and Naomi's losses?
2. Imagine a conversation with Ruth and Naomi before they met Boaz. What might they have talked about having just experienced so much loss and pain?
3. Are there ways that you think God has worked in your life that you couldn't see at the time?
4. The women of the town knew that Naomi would have more life and energy thanks to her grandson. What activities give you more life? Are there ways that you can invest in younger people to help them grow and energize you?
5. What is the significance of Ruth being part of the lineage of Jesus? What does this say about God's mercy and grace?
