1. What is your favorite memory of your father (or father figure)?
2. Why is the father's role in the family so important?

Read Deuteronomy 6:1-9

And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children...

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

3. According to Deuteronomy 6, whose responsibility is it to teach our children about God? Are you currently engaged in this as a father (or parent, or mentor) or are you leaving this to the church?
4. How are we to teach our children about the Lord and His commands?

Read Matthew 22:34-40

5. When asked about the greatest commandment, Jesus quotes Deuteronomy 6. Why is this the greatest commandment? How are loving God and loving others closely related?
6. Pastor Adam talked about being a messenger for our children. How are you teaching and modeling these commands for your children (or someone you're discipling)?

Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.

Proverbs 22:6

7. How did you receive this direction from your father/parents? How are you passing it on to the next generation?
