1. When you think of the next generation, what comes to mind?
2. What are some challenges that you've experienced in connecting with young people today? What might be some other challenges?
3. Why do you think older generations are often critical about younger generations? Is there validity to these reasons? Why or why not?
4. What do you think the top 5 issues kids/teenagers today are facing? **Consider spending some time this week researching one of the issues you listed, and report your findings with the group next time you meet. Is it as big of a problem as you originally thought? What surprised you in your findings?*
5. Steve noted that "Sensational solutions make us feel good, small solutions make us do good."

What are some small steps can you take towards connecting with the disconnected?
