

All Are Welcome

John Richardson | 2/26/2023 | Acts 10:1-33

1. What foods do you most associate with religious dietary restrictions?
2. Read Acts 10:1-7.
3. How would you describe Cornelius based on these verses?
4. Discuss how God interacts with the prayers of non-believers. Give scriptural support.
5. What encouragement and advice would you give to a non-Christian who prays and lives a moral life?
6. Read Acts 10:8-23.
7. What can we learn from Peter's availability to God in this passage?
8. How did the work of Christ replace the Old Testament dietary code for God's children?
9. Read Acts 10:24-33.
10. What was the significance of Peter's acceptance of Cornelius?
11. Who are the people you find it most difficult to imagine seeking and encountering Christ? How does this passage challenge and encourage you in your consideration and interaction with them?