

All Things to All People

Adam Bowers | 6/18/2023 | Acts 16:1-5; 1 Corinthians 9:19-23

1. Did you have rules you had to follow when you were younger that seem odd now?
2. Why did Paul want Timothy to be circumcised even after he fought to keep this requirement from being forced on the other Gentiles?
3. Adam talked about the iceberg of our actions, emotions, thoughts, beliefs, and hurts. Why is it important to understand the depths of motives behind people's actions?
4. What are the benefits of understanding our own iceberg?
5. Paul was motivated by his position as a slave to Christ and his mission to bring more people to Christ. Why is being a slave to Christ a good thing that he would want more people to experience?
6. What are some examples of setting aside personal preferences and finding common ground for the sake of the gospel in our modern context?
7. What are some examples of overstepping boundaries for the sake of the gospel that would actually be violations of the Law of Christ?
