

The Ends of the Earth

The Beauty and Complexity of God's World Mission

Kyle Howard | 1/14/2024 | Acts 20:1-38

---

1. What was one thing that you felt God brought to your attention either in Sunday's teaching or as you read Acts 20 yourself?
2. Why do you think Luke included the cities, places, people, and travel details as he was recording the movement of the New Testament Church? How does it remind us the hope we have in Jesus is a real hope that is on the ground and going throughout our world?
3. Be honest: do you find vs. 7-12 both humorous and miraculous?
4. As you read vs.17-38, what does this tell us about Paul's relationship with the Elders from Ephesus? How does this remind us of the deep-seated community we are to have with others in Christ? What does God use to create this?
5. Luke is the human author God inspired to write what we call "The Gospel of Luke" and "Acts". How, in some ways, does Paul in Acts 20, mirror Jesus in Luke 9? Do you think this is on purpose? Why or why not?
6. How are you letting God stir your heart toward His mission locally in your spheres of influence, congregationally at First Free, and globally through world missions? If you don't know where or how to get started with any of those, reach out to us at efree.org/contact. We would love to help out!