

For the Broken

Adam Bowers | 8/18/2024 | Psalm 51

1. In what ways can you relate or not relate to David's story of sin and brokenness?
2. David admits that his sin haunts him day and night. How does unconfessed sin affect our daily lives and relationship with God?
3. David says, "Against you, and you alone, have I sinned." Why is it important to recognize that all sin is ultimately against God? How does this perspective influence our repentance?
4. After his repentance, David commits to teaching others about God's ways. How can our experiences with sin and repentance be used to help others?
5. Romans 8:1-2 teaches that there is no condemnation for those in Christ. How can we practically live out this truth when we still struggle with feelings of guilt and shame? How does this compare to David's plea for a clean heart in Psalm 51?
