

How Long Will This Take?

John Richardson | 10/27/2024 | Daniel 8

1. What stood out to you the most in Daniel's vision in chapter 8? Why do you think this vision is significant?
2. How does the angel Gabriel's explanation of the vision (Daniel 8:19-22) help us understand the events that were to come in the Medo-Persian and Greek empires?
3. The sermon begins with the question, "How long will this take?" In what ways do we see this question mirrored in our lives today?
4. How do you respond when you find yourself waiting for God to act in difficult situations? How can we grow in trust and patience during those times?
5. Daniel was deeply troubled by the vision he received. Have you ever felt similarly overwhelmed by what God was showing or teaching you? How did you respond?
6. Daniel's vision speaks about a future time of judgment and restoration. How does the promise of God's ultimate victory and restoration impact how we live today?
7. The sermon suggests we ask, "What should I be doing while waiting for God's deliverance?" How does this shift our perspective from passive waiting to active trust?
8. How do prayer, commitment, and trust in God help us endure periods of difficulty or exile in our lives?
