

Creating an Invitational Culture

Barret Moore | 3/23/2025

1. What does “inviting others in” normally look like for you? Do you find it easy or difficult?
2. What does the word “church” mean to you? Did your upbringing strengthen or push against that view?
3. What’s an example of Christians inviting others in well? What’s an example of Christians doing it poorly?
4. Do you think that being a “light” and inviting others in are connected? Why or why not?
5. Do you find it easy or difficult to go “into the darkness?” How many people in your sphere of influence are believers vs. non-believers?
6. Who is the one person you are choosing to invite? What steps can you take to invite them this week?
