1. What stood out to you most from Mary Magdalene's experience at the tomb? Why do you think John chose to include her story in such detail when the other gospel authors didn't?
2. How do the differences between the gospel accounts of the resurrection impact your faith? What about the numerous connections to historically verified places and people?
3. Read Colossians 2:12-14. Paul said we were "buried with Christ" and "raised to new life." In what ways have you experienced that resurrection life personally?
4. Are there "grave clothes" from your old life that you're still holding on to? What would it look like to "take them off" and live in the new nature?
5. If someone asked you, "What difference does the resurrection actually make in your life today?"—how would you answer?
6. Mary ran to tell the disciples that Jesus was alive. Who in your life needs to hear that Jesus is alive—and what would it take to have that conversation?
