Discussion Questions:

Why does Jesus' humanity matter?

Does thinking of the gospel writers as “real people” help your faith, hurt your faith, or not really affect it?

How much should authorial intent affect how we read Scripture? A lot? A little? Not at all?

How should Jesus' call to John and Mary affect how we view our church family?

Jesus said “It is finished!” What is “it?”

What does it mean for sin to no longer be our master? How can that affect the way you actually live?

What is the struggle or sin that you need to surrender to the cross? What is one step you can take towards that today?
