1. What are some of the disagreements you have witnessed in churches? Have any of them affected you personally?
2. Why does it often feel more satisfying to win a belief argument than to maintain the harmony Paul pleads for? What does it look like to prioritize harmony instead?
3. Are there ever times when unity and harmony must be protected by division?
4. How can understanding the Buckets of Belief help us maintain unity AND determine when a belief is worth dividing over?
5. Read Galatians 6:1-3. How does this passage apply to the message on belief disagreements within the church?
6. Are there any tears in relationships in your life that you need to work to mend?
